What is the error?

Action Flow Continuity

- establishing and maintaining the movement [____] of characters, vehicles, and other objects

- when the action flow is [____], it gives the impression that the characters or vehincles have changed direction

- to change direction, focus on a character who is facing the [____] direction then use [____]- focus on a character when they are speaking and end sequence by reestablishing the original action flow direction