

Toilet Talk: Domestic Violence and Consent

Directions: Today you are taking on the role of a reporter, researching facts on domestic violence and consent and dispensing this accurate, vital information to the PHS community. As a class, you will come up with possible headlines/categories of this one-page toilet talk that will hang in the bathroom stalls. Then you will receive your assignments. While working through your assignment, remember that your biggest challenges will include formatting/conveying this information on a sensitive topic in an appropriate and interesting format, as well as making your writing concise. If I can cut out any words or phrases, your writing isn't concise.
