

Ms. Marvel Project

You just finished reading G. Willow Wilson's run on Ms. Marvel, analyzing the representation of women, religion, and culture. We also examined and discussed the clever art decisions of Adrian Alphona – paneling, transitioning, background details that are humorous, and Easter eggs. Today, you will have a chance to dabble in similar artistic choices and use these choices to help guide your story telling and message.

Directions: You can complete the typical comic review or you can choose the creative writing option – write a 1 page comic where the blue bear Easter egg becomes the focal of your story and Kamala becomes the background allusion.

Requirements and Grading:

Clear, logical side plot	____/5 points
Appropriate story within the context of Ms. Marvel issue	____/3 points
Blue bear is developed as the focus of the story	____/3 points
Smooth transitions between panels	____/3 points
Panel layout that reflects the themes and plot	____/3 points
Kamala is cleverly referenced in the background of an image	____/3 points
Total	____/25 points